Felling of forest wood

†537. SHRIMATI MAYA SINGH: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that valuable forest wood is being felled and is being exported despite a ban on the same during the last few years which is adversely affecting environment;

(b) if so, the guidelines laid down for conservation of forests and action taken for violation of such guidelines;

(c) the quantum of wood exported during the last three years along with names of countries to which this wood has been exported; and

(d) the steps being taken to check the felling of forest wood and maintaining balance of environment in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI NAMO NARAIN MEENA): (a) No, Sir. However sporadic incidents of illicit felling of trees are reported from time to time in different parts of the country. As per the State of Forest Report 2003, the forest and tree cover in the country is 23.68% of the geographical area of the country as against the year 2001 when it was 23.03%.

(b). Legal provisions under Indian Forest Act, 1927, Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972, Forest Conservation Act, 1980 and Environment Protection Act, 1986 and the rules, there-under are in place and action for violation is taken in accordance with them.

(c) Details of wood exported during last three years are as under:—

Year	Volume of wood exported (cubic metres)	Countries to which wood has been exported
2001-02	32300	France, Maldives, Nepal, Ghana, Columbia, Switzerland, USA, Belgium, Qatar, UAE, Czech Republic, Netherland, UK, Canada, Japan, Honkong, Malaysia
2002-03	13270
2003-04	9830

The above table shows that the magnitudes of wood export from India is very small.
